Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 – 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 1, 2, 11 – 13, 18, and 19, the phrases “...when there is a possibility...” and “the presence or absence of a possibility...” render the claims vague and indefinite because a possibility is not a positive limitation but only suggests uncertain likelihood. The avoidance system cannot rely on uncertainty; otherwise, safety appears compromised.

Regarding claims 4 and 16, the phrase “relatively higher” is also vague and indefinite because it is not clear as to what determines such relativity. Is the factor for ‘operative state’ higher than the factor for ‘inoperative state’ or not?

Any claims linked to claims 1, 2, and 11 – 13 are necessarily rejected.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 2, 4, 11 – 13, 16, 18, and 19 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action. Any claims linked to claims 1, 2, 4, 11 – 13, 16, 18, and 19 will benefit from the same.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Matsumoto et al. (US 20040230375; 20040215393; and 20040158377) and Tange et al. (US 20040186650 and 20030195667) and Kawazoe et al. (US 6,493,619 B2) all teach related automotive lane deviation prevention system, apparatus, and method.
